ST. JOSEPH HEALTH SYSTEM ANNOUNCES LIGHTHOUSE AWARD WINNER

St. Joseph Health System (SJHS) is proud to recognize Roxanne Rosenfeld, RN from ER, as the 19th Quarter Lighthouse Award Winner. The purpose of the Lighthouse Award is to recognize outstanding service leadership, commitment and dedication within St. Joseph Health System. The award recognizes one associate who best “Shines the Light on SJHS Values in Action.”

Rosenfeld was nominated by co-worker Karen Blair for her sincere act of kindness bestowed upon her co-workers. “Roxanne was so kind and thoughtful to prepare an entire Christmas dinner for the night ER staff and ancillary departments,” said Blair. Dr. Patrick Murtha, President and CEO of SJHS presented the award to Rosenfeld on February 2, 2010 at the Lighthouse Award breakfast at St. Joseph Hospital.

Pat McDougall, Director of ER said, “Roxanne winning this award not only demonstrates her commitment to her patients but also to her co-workers. She is always there for everyone.”

Rosenfeld was one of four finalists for the Lighthouse Award. Other finalists were: Katie Frank, Nurse Manger of Obstetrics, and Sue Boom and Denise Peters, both from Rehabilitation Services.
